In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Leslie Locke

4915 Muddy Bay San Antonio Texas 78244

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

The control big business has over the general public's sensitive financial information can be life changing when mismanaged. Such as this case.

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

The breach of so much private information due to such obvious and egregious technical incompetence must be penalized with more than what amounts to a slap on the wrist and a marketing opportunity for Equifax's identity protection products.

The minimum I would consider acceptable would be the 25$ and at least 3 years of identity protection for everyone involved for free, ideally provided by a third party.

Considering the impact of this breach, this settlement is completely unacceptable. The impact to people's lives can be far reaching and may not be known for years. Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Jeremy Martin

2500 Jamestown Court Euless TX 76040

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☐
- Unreasonable ☐

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Your Honor,

I believe this to be unfair to me because I work hard for my life and everything I have. To have my SS# be exposed by Experian and then they only want to barely pay anything to recoup any of the costs that I have paid on the last 2 years of Credit Monitoring with them. I have paid $29.99 a month for 24 months for their service to help protect my SS# and then to have it exposed on the internet and then they now only want to barely pay between $1.30 to $25 is ridiculous for the money I have paid. I could go anywhere else and could still pay same thing and hopefully expect better outcome if there service had a hack that exposed people's SS#'s and info. But have to pray that you would look at the facts and please be fair and honest in your judgement. Please side with me.

They did not take security seriously in protecting My most personal information and should be forced to compensate everyone properly for the damage that's been done. It take a tremendous amount of time and work to fix a case of stolen identity and has caused so much stress just trying to correct mine.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

It's ridiculous the amount of harm Equifax has done to consumers. A paltry "maybe $10" is absolutely unacceptable in terms of payment to victims. It's bad enough how shady they are with credit scores in the first place, the least they could do is actually pay for the hardships their carelessness has inflicted on us. They should actually feel some hurt from a penalty so they learn their lesson and don't do it again.

Equifax is a private entity that obtains and sells my data to others, then loses it and thinks that mere pennies is enough to recompense. If I were to do a similar thing in my own job, I would be fired on the spot. The penalty for losing my data, and the data of 147 million other Americans, must be severe enough that Equifax will never let such an event happen again.

In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Kelly Hagen

1845 6th Ave SW, Vero Beach, FL, USA

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☐ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☐

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I may attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

This is completely unfair!!!

Your Honor, for a company that has made millions off of people like me selling their personal information to completely deny and ignore their incompetence on protecting my identity and personal information is absurd. And their solution is to pay me $10 and monitor my credit, which they were supposed to be doing in the first place is ridiculous. They should be held to a higher standard and be made an example of.

Class counsel representing Plaintiffs

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Honorable Thrash Jr.

This proposed settlement is unconscionable and approving sers a president with companies like Equifax that they can mishandle sensitive personal data haphazardly with no repercussions. A message must be clearly sent stating that if you intend on causing irreparable harm it will cost you in the end.

Therefore I strenuously object to the aforementioned class settlement.

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I believe Equifax deserves to compensate the victims more for their actions. It's time to hold these companies responsible for the harm they are causing the working class!!

Companies like Equifax have profited from personal data with out much of a repercussion for misuse, they enjoy all the benefits and shun from responsibility when they mess up. My data is floating on the internet unencumbered and ready to be used by malicious actors that can steal my identity to create credit cards and loans. Having to be weary of when will my information be used by someone and go through the process of proving you did not do what someone else did is frightening, my niece had to go through the horrific process when someone stole her identity that took over a year to fix. I implore you to side with justice and help the little people.

Thank you for your time

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

You cannot engage in life in the US without having your information in the credit bureaus. They must be held accountable for the level of harm here. If Equifax went bankrupt because of this I would be satisfied that we'd sent the appropriate message to its competitors about the gravity of letting our information leak.

I get scam phone calls weekly now from callers who HAVE MY SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER, this never happened before the breach. I will need asset protection (From a vendor who is not as clueless as Equifax) for my entire life if I hope to avoid losing money to identity theft. The court should take a hard-line stance here and ensure this never happens again.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

This settlement is unfair. The amount is too low and the credit monitoring is by Equifax, who had their own credit breach a few months ago. These credit monitoring companies need to show they are serious about monitoring our credit information, not just lip service and then business as usual.

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☐

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

Equifax's breach is a serious breach of my data privacy. Equifax failed its obligation to protect my data and to present the option of either getting $5 in compensation or using its own credit monitoring program (which I have no reason to place any trust in) is laughable. This settlement agreement sends the wrong message and does not provide a penalty high enough to incentivize better practices on Equifax's part or on other companies who should invest in consumer privacy protection.

They did not set aside enough to give everyone who requested it the $125 promised. Credit monitoring is already provided to so many people, by their banks, credit card companies, or because of a previous data breach. Equifax should be forced to pay the full $125 to everyone who requested it, not just a few dollars. Did they really think everyone would want their company monitoring our credit?

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

It is unfair to put so many people in questionable credit situations and expect them to even begin to know how to get unfair or inaccurate items off of their report and simply do nothing to Equifax.

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

I object to the Equifax class action settlement. Equifax has made money selling my private financial information without my permission for many years. They do not remove errors in credit information even when proof of errors is provided. But when they make bad decisions that can lead to financial ruin of millions of people there needs to be stronger message sent to Equifax. This class action settlement is inadequate. When I first heard that each person affected by the security breach to Equifax's computers I thought it was better than nothing. But now that I have found out that people are receiving only a small percentage of that $125.00. I will not be making my justified class to this sham of a settlement.

I do hope that this settlement will be reconsidered in and adjusted.

They have exposed me to criminals who want to exploit me. I had to put a freeze on my credit and now can not easily gain access to it. I had an emergency recently and could not remember all the info that was required to unfreeze my credit right away so I could have access to credit to get anew tire for my car. I was stranded in more ways than one. I am tired of companies not spending money on security to keep information such as this safe.

In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Michael Tauraso

511 224th Place Southeast, Bothell, WA, USA

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

You cannot engage in life in the US without having your information in the credit bureaus. They must be held accountable for the level of harm here. If Equifax went bankrupt because of this I would be satisfied that we'd sent the appropriate message to its competitors about the gravity of letting our information leak.

I get scam phone calls weekly now from callers who HAVE MY SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER, this never happened before the breach. I will need asset protection (From a vendor who is not as clueless as Equifax) for my entire life if I hope to avoid losing money to identity theft. The court should take a hard-line stance here and ensure this never happens again.

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☐ Unduly burdensome ☐
- Inadequate ☐
- Unreasonable ☐

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I will not attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

This has to end I have had my personal information stolen so many times that i already have the free credit monitoring. If a large company like equifax isnt held responsible it sets a bad precedent for the other companies. If i owned a large company i would make sure that everyones information was secure. Equifax failed to do so and therefore needs to pay the consumers who they hurt.

In re: Equifax Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation

Case No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT

Donald Dumoulin

15425 Bridgewater Club Boulevard, Carmel, IN, USA

I have checked the settlement website and have confirmed I am a class member.

I object to this settlement, on the grounds its terms are:

- Unfair ☒ Unduly burdensome ☒
- Inadequate ☒
- Unreasonable ☒

I have objected to no class action settlements in the last five years.

I am unable to attend the settlement hearing in person.

I do not expect to be represented by an attorney.

Personal note to The Honorable Thomas W. Thrash Jr.

This proposed settlement is truly ridiculous and I urge you to reject it. Equifax regularly steals our personal information to monetize and then did nothing to protect it.

The single best settlement would be to allow individuals to opt out of Equifax! That is they would be prohibited from collecting any data on any individual who does not want personal information gathered. That would send a clear message to others that if you have our personal information you are responsible to protect it at all times.

My social security number is worth more than a few dollars, which is what Equifax will pay each person whose information has been breached.
